This memo will memorialize conversations that I had with Assistant Section Chief TIMOTHY C. DORCH, White Collar Crime Section, FBIHQ, and SSA [redacted] Public Corruption Unit, WCC Section, on 3/1 and 3/2/93.

b6
b7C

On 3/1/93, Assistant Section Chief DORCH and I spoke regarding captioned matter and the obtaining of appropriate authorities for conducting consensually monitored telephone and/or body recorded conversations between consenting party, a [redacted] Assistant Section Chief DORCH advised that Miami Division had telephonic consensual monitoring authority for [redacted] concerning captioned matter which had been granted by Deputy Assistant Director FRED B. VERINDER and Assistant Director LARRY A. POTTS. This authority was granted after significant discussions were held between Headquarters personnel and Department of Justice, Public Integrity Section personnel.

b6
b7C
b7D

Assistant Section Chief DORCH further advised that once the consensual monitoring had been completed, Miami was to consult with Headquarters prior to any interview being conducted. He specifically stated that [redacted] [redacted] was not being granted or considered at this time.

b6
b7C
b7D

ASC DORCH further advised that all decisions regarding the investigation of this matter were to be made in conjunction with Headquarters personnel and that authority to conduct investigation would be granted by appropriate Headquarters personnel.

At approximately 10:00 p.m. 3/1/93, I contacted ASC DORCH at his residence in the Greater Washington D.C. area and [redacted]

Re: Ronald Brown, AKA Ron Brown; United States Secretary of

Branch; Hobbs Act - Extortion; OO: Miami

Further investigation into this matter would require a direct approach [redacted]

[redacted] The likelihood of success of such an approach is believed to be minimal and risks exposing this entire investigation. Based on the limited positive information developed to date, and the lack of a reasonable expectation of achieving evidence through overt

b6
b7C

investigation, further investigation is no longer justified.
Miami will continue to maintain contact with the cooperating witness and monitor [redacted] If any positive information is developed or an opportunity arises for additional covert investigation, authority to re-open this matter will be requested. At this time, however, it is recommended that captioned matter be closed.

Media inquiry into this matter has been minimal with questions being posed exclusively to the U.S. Attorney's Office in the Southern District of Florida. The USAO has not commented on the matter, and it appears that media interest has dissolved.
No inquiries have been directed toward the FBI.

The Department of Justice, Public Integrity Section (DOJ, PIS), has been kept fully apprised of the details of this investigation. Based on the facts and investigation conducted to date, DOJ, PIS, concurs with the recommendation to close this matter. Based on your approval, a confirming letter will be forwarded to DOJ.
